Bozeman Art Museum	Founded to fill the lack of art museums in Bozeman and a desire to bring art to the Gallatin Valley. We are creating a place where people can experience the transformational power of art.	Free admission to exhibits; Free art classes for Gallatin county students (in 9 schools and home school) including art supplies; after school programming. Free public lectures, hoping for 9 in 2022) at the Museum of the Rockies; free art classes at Belgrade and Bozeman libraries; Free art classes - "Creative Aging" program in 2 local venues- the Springs and Gallatin Nursing Home; national art workshops; special free classes to local nonprofit partners.	Gallatin Valley-rural schools are targeted	$448,820.00	1
Reese Creek Community Center- Restoration of the Reese Creek Schoolhouse	Reese Creek Community Center (RCCC) is a 501.3C non-profit originally established by the original homestead families and community members of the Reese Creek Townsite Community. This non-profit was created to preserve and maintain the original Reese Creek Schoolhouse, one of the original 77 one-room schoolhouses in the Gallatin Valley.	The Reese Creek Community desires to provide a community center for the local residents and the North Gallatin County Communities at large. This structure can provide a central gathering place for events, senior support, and other community purposes. Our hope is to have this center host cultural events such as concert, dances , lectures and family gatherings.	2000+, with constant visitors to North Gallatin County Montana	$25,000.00	0
Bienvenidos a Gallatin Valley (Welcome to Gallatin Valley)	We provide mentoring, communication, advocacy and coordination to welcome and help integrate new Spanish speaking immigrants and their families to the Gallatin Valley. We were founded with the help of the ESL Director for Bozeman Schools in order to help mentor new families. We now mentor 28 families and have a waiting list.	Our services include language acquisition, transportation, US cultural understanding, and access to community resources. We empower our participants to offer a helping hand to others. We organize the Migrant Community Coordination group, in order to help Spanish speaking families access the resources available to them. We are also educating agencies about the need for Spanish-speaking staff and materials translated to Spanish.	Newly-arrived Spanish-speaking families with children	$28,116.00	0
Greater Gallatin United Way - Dolly Parton's Imagination Library	The Dolly Parton Imagination fits into the scope of our United Way program under Child and Youth Success Impact. We are the Gallatin and Park County affiliate for Dolly Parton's Imagination Library (DPIL) - a book-gifting program for ALL children ages 0 through 4.	The program mails a FREE, brand new book to the enrolled child every month. The single most significant factor influencing a child's early educational success is an introduction to books and being read to at home before beginning school.28.47% of elementary students in Montanan's are falling behind their peers in reading.	All children in Gallatin County are eligible to receive DPIL books until they turn 5 years old.	$58,300.00	0

Thrive's Parent Place Program	Thrive's work is centered on providing early, preventative programs and helping communities work collaboratively to support families and children.	Parent Place provides programming, information, support, and resources to parents to ensure healthy child growth and development. These programs include a family resource center, Girls Empowerment program, Child Advancement Project (CAP) a school-based mentoring program. Let Me Run, a running program for boys. The Parent Liaison program, and a full-spectrum, home-visiting program for young families. Thrive is also prioritizing early childhood education initiatives as part of our updated strategic plan.	All parents and children (typically ages 0-9) with any need living in Gallatin County are eligible to receive services and support from our Parent Place parent educator.	$75,039.00	1
Gallatin Valley Farm to School	Gallatin Valley Farm to School was founded 14 years ago by a group of concerned teachers, parents, and community members who wanted to ensure that children in Gallatin County were able to access nourishing foods. Our vision is that children and families in the Gallatin Valley grow, prepare, and eat healthy food. We work towards our vision through integrated, hands-on local food education that gives kids and families the knowledge, skills, and tools that they need to access, use, and enjoy local foods.	We offer school programs that enhance learning standards while providing students with hands-on, real-world experiences and connections to the local food systems. This education programming includes: hands-on lessons about cooking, food literacy, science, school gardens and farm field trips to local farms. Additionally, we have community youth programs, summer camps, PIR camps, workshops and family cook nights.	Our programs are open to anyone in Gallatin County, and we actively work with community partners including schools, businesses, and non-profit organizations to locate our programming in places that meet the community where they are at.	$233,884.00	4
Sexual Assault Counseling Center	The Sexual Assault Counseling Center was added as an official program of Help Center, Inc. in 1996 to address the growing need of community advocacy and a trauma-informed approach for survivors of sexual assault.	This center provides quality trauma recovery counseling, outreach, advocacy, and information to survivors of sexual assault, incest or abuse, and to their concerned others. This includes a 24-hour support line, individual, ongoing counseling for survivors and significant others, crisis intervention and accompaniment and advocacy during medical exams and law enforcement interviews and follow-up services education.	Survivors of sexual assault and their support systems	$118,341.00	1
The Compassion Project	Our mission is to teach and spread compassion through art and mindfulness education. We strive to remove barriers for people to experience the power of the arts and take in new perspectives and experiences. We have shared our lessons with 497 people, 378 of these being K-12 students.	We provide curricula, workshops, trainings, and transformative art experiences to K-12 schools, colleges, and community organizations. We've partnered with multiple schools and organizations to promote exploring art through team building, meditation and creativity.	K-12 students, families, and adults	$38,300.00	1

Windhorse Equine Learning	Windhorse Equine Learning has been providing equine-assisted learning (EAL) programs for Gallatin County youth since 2013. These programs build competencies and confidence, developing resilient youth who can successfully navigate their teenage years. It enables them to become leaders among their peers and productive members of our community. The program also provides scholarship assistant to disadvantaged families. We have been able to build a stable and sustainable program that will continue to support the youth of Gallatin Valley.	Windhorse programs serve youth ages 8-18. Our equine-assisted learning (EAL) programs facilitate personal growth, help youth build confidence and self-esteem, reduce stress and anxiety, and foster awareness through the equine/human bond. By teaching horsemanship skills, we help to provide social and emotional learning.	Youth ages 8-18, particularly those who suffer from anxiety or are experiencing other challenges.	$204,348.00	0

Bozeman Art Museum	17	510	We would love to have you partner with us in our growth as an organization.	Never selected for GVNC, but applied for grant in 2019, 2020 and 2021
Reese Creek Community Center- Restoration of the Reese Creek Schoolhouse	30	1500	Raising the Roof campaign, replacement of the 118 yr old roof structure, restoration efforts and ADA access ramp.	Never selected for GVNC, but applied for grant in 2020 and 2021
Bienvenidos a Gallatin Valley (Welcome to Gallatin Valley)	48	5-30 hours per month per volunteer	We would like to build a Direct Assistance Fund to access community resources for these families.	Never
Greater Gallatin United Way - Dolly Parton's Imagination Library	4	36	We are asking for assistance to keep this program sustainable for children in Gallatin County. As the county grows and word gets out about DPIL, we continue to see our costs rise. We have been able to raise sufficient funds to feed this growth and carry funds over to sustain a healthy year-to-year budget but to continue this trend, we need to find additional funding partners to add to the mix. Thrive's Parent Place Program	46	200	A grant from the Gallatin Valley Newcomers Club would be instrumental in expanding this program and supporting children and parents not only during this challenging time, but ensuring a successful future for themselves and generations to come.	Thrive received a donation from GVNC, but it was not for the Parent Place Project.
Gallatin Valley Farm to School	15	300	Funding will support our efforts to bring hands-on food education to rural and low income schools in Gallatin County.	Never selected as a GVNC grant recipient but applied for a grant in 2019, 2020 and 2021.
Sexual Assault Counseling Center	0	0	We recently learned that our victim services programs (Sexual Assault Counseling Center & Gallatin County Child Advocacy Center) funding through Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) and Sexual Assault Services Program (SASP) have been cut by 30 and 20 percent respectively over last year's budget, starting this July. Our need is for funding to help support this unexpected loss in income.	The Help Center received a donation in 2010 but has never received a donation for the Sexual Assault Center.
The Compassion Project	37	564	We are currently looking for a new home in the community! We would like to create a shared office space plus community room for art workshops. Having a home in the community will put us in a stronger position to train volunteers, reach more people and host fundraisers.	Never
